THE SWEETEST WORKSHOP

It's sad to say, but when you're at a conference, the coffee break is often the highlight of the day! Something sweet mid-seminar or a chocolate fix before the workshop... sometimes you just need it. Now you can see mouth-watering truffles being crafted in front of your eyes and have your very own do-it-yourself chocolate experience to take home with you. It is something to dream about while sitting in the seminar... Warmly recommended!

Dark chocolate, coffee liqueur, whipped cream, cocoa powder and some other secret ingredients will take on a whole new meaning when you attend the Reval Hotel Olümpia's truffle-making workshop, where our experienced confectioners will teach you a host of tasty tricks to satisfy even the sweetest tooth..

THE SECRET OF SPECIAL EVENINGS

Evenings spent at the Reval Hotel Olümpia are ones you will never forget. Age old traditions come together with modern luxury in a relaxing interlude to an active life. It is history, an experience, enjoyment; it is something special which words alone cannot quite capture. Something you simply have to try for yourselves. The secret will be revealed to you on the second floor of the Reval Hotel Olümpia.

Arrange an engaging and friendly wine class at the Reval Hotel Olümpia, where Reval Hotels' sommeliers will introduce you to unforgettable taste sensations and the secrets of the world's finest cellars.

MORE THAN JUST AN ORDINARY DINNER

Don't be fooled by the champagne flutes, candles and whiter than white linen adorning the table: this is no ordinary dinner. Look around and you will notice how the flickering light from the candles creates a shadow play throughout the kitchen. Hanging on the walls are enormous knives. Warm light streams from the oven. The chef, in his pristine white uniform, offers you a welcome drink and hors d'oeuvres. The little works of art he crafts for you are prepared right before your eyes, and every dish is introduced personally. By no means is this an ordinary dinner — it is something much more: an unsurpassed taste experience in an unforgettable setting, garnished with the company of your choice!

The Reval Hotel Olümpia's kitchen dinner is an exclusive opportunity for up to ten guests to enjoy fine dining at a beautifully laid table right here in our kitchen. Includes a welcome drink, hors d'oeuvres and a menu chosen especially for the season.
